BERNARD M. KELLMURRAY

DEDICATION

Dear Mr. Kellmurray,

We have always been very appreciative of your faculty to consider us each as an individual; yet we, the class of 1958, must now speak together, and collectively say "Thanks". That our contact with you for four years has been an edifying, as well as an enjoyable experience, goes without saying. However, somewhere along the line — more from a lack in ourselves than from the educational policies of the Andover schools, of course — we have not had sufficient practice in the art of writing "thank you" notes to express our sincere gratitude. You have always treated us as adults, and as such, we must assume the posture of caution and beware of the pitfalls of excessive emotion. "Wonderful" has become a very meaningless word along with other modern catch-alls such as "great" and "terrific". Yet, all of these adjectives and so many more befit you. (If we had studied more "for college boards and not so much for college", maybe we would now have a greater vocabulary from which to choose our words of appreciation.) You were at all times our teacher, and we learned from you both in and out of class. You have served us warmly and sincerely and most important, you have always been our loyal friend. So, Mr. Kellmurray, please accept our thanks and best wishes for the future.

Class of 1958.

"I THINK YOU'RE GOING TO LIKE

I'm Agony. I'm a SENIOR. I'm very popular and O! so busy. Mr. March always seems to be giving me dirty looks-but, I know he really loves me. I love the new intercom system-it's so much fun to play with. See my boy friend Artie, he may be kind of small, but he's got a big head; that makes up for it. I have so many meetings to go to. I'm chairman of the Mess-Up Committee for all our class dances. President of the National Mischief Society. I'm in charge of all dirty gym clothes, and of handing out roller skates to all late students. I'm monitor for all students sliding down banisters. I won the Miss Ego Award, 1957! I set a new record for breaking the most test tubes in Chemistry last year. Whenever I see Mr. McIntyre (Bobby) coming down the corridor, I get all excited — he's sooo cute. I love to argue with Mr. Kellmurray; he's so intelligent. My most important position is President of the N. H. S. — "No Homework Society". My position on the Mosaic Staff is that of dotting the I's and crossing the T's. But I'm even more important in this yearbook staff; I numbered the pages!

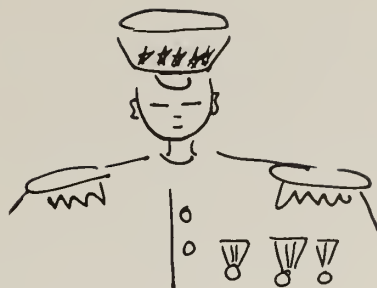

I'm Artie. I'm a P.G. . Aggie (that's what I call her) says that I'm her boy friend, but I like to play the field. For some reason, I always spend my first period standing in line outside Mr. Gregory's office. You know something, Aggie's not the only one who's popular — I was Captain of the Senior Indian Wrestling Team for the past three years. As a matter of fact, I've been a senior for the past three years. My graduation was such a shock to me that I lost all but one strand of hair. I wrote one Sen TENSE and got an F in gym. I have always gotten many F's, but Mrs. Hardy made it interesting by giving me F+'s and F-'s. I took first year French but somehow Miss Smith and I never spoke the same language. I have to go now, Aggie's calling me. See you later.

On October first, William Simpson, President of the junior class, called the first meeting of the new school year to order. Miss Dugan, the class advisor, was present. . . . The first matter to be discussed was that of the class ring committee. Jerry Znamierowski was appointed chairman. Many ideas and suggestions were offered for fund raising projects which the class might undertake. The students elected Joan Lynch chairman of this committee. A successful dance, "Silhouettes," was held on November fifteenth, and for its other project, the class held a bakery sale in February. The biggest responsibility of the junior class is the junior-senior prom to be held in June. Chairman of the prom is George Connors and he is hoping to make this event as successful as last year. . . . I will close this report at the end of the school year, 1957-58, with the knowledge that it has been a successful one, and that the class of '59 is now anxiously awaiting the final step in the ladder—our senior year.

Respectfully submitted,
Carol Winkley
Secretary

Secretary's Report

The meeting of the Sophomore Class was brought to order on September 5, 1957 at our new Andover High School. What an opportunity we all had to be able to work in such modern surroundings!

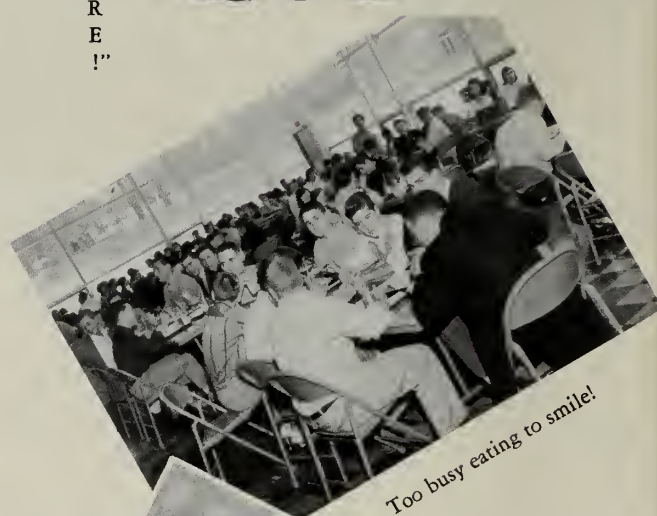

On December thirteenth, the aroma of home-baked goods filled the hallways as students of the Sophomore Class brought in their contributions for the bakery sale which was held that afternoon and the following day. Over a hundred dollars was gained from this sale.

Do you remember the night of the "Basketball Bounce"? Lots of fun, wasn't it? Everyone considered it a big success.

This exciting year came to a close in June of 1958.

Respectfully submitted,
Judith Karlis
Secretary

With only four returning regulars, the inexperienced Andover High Blue Devils dropped their opening game to a powerful Wellesley team; but the vastly improved Andoverites showed promise in losing to a heavily favored Danvers Club by a close score. In one of the most exciting games of the season, the Blue and Gold edged a highly touted Billerica eleven. Our boys made it three in a row by downing Stoneham and Lexington. In the waning moments of their traditional game an inspired Andover eleven were beaten by its arch rival Metheun.

Andover suffered it's fourth loss at the hands of Cambridge Latin. After five successive Turkey Day setbacks a heavier and more experienced North Andover Club gained revenge toppling the Blue Devils by a 21-0 score.

The big and versitale backfield consisted of Captain "Turk" Reed and "Chief" Carelli at the half-backs; "Buzzy" Simpson in the fullback slot and "Jungle Jim" Bennett running from the quarterback position.

Comprising the bulk of one of the fastest and lightest lines in years were guards Al Tripp and Ed Munroe, and tackles "Goose" Gesing and Bob Colpitts: In the reserves were Jerry Fleischli, "Butch" Donahue, "Cavy" Cavallaro, Carl Comeau.

Bewitched, bothered, and bewildered.

The new Andover High Cross Country Team had a very successful year, winning seven out of its nine meets and placing seventh in the State for its class. The team will lose three members at graduation this year, but there are many good runners to carry on in 1958-59. Those who earned their letters are as follows: Captain Bill Davis, Ed Bolia, Dave Cronin, Donald Sorrie, Gordon Schwartz, and Donald Wescott. Left to Right: Back Row, David Cronin, Edward Bolia, Lynn Johnson, Donald Sorrie, Brian Allen, Terrance Sweeney, Joseph Hastings. Left to Right: Front Row, Robert Melhouse, Donald Wescott, Captain William Davis, Gordon Schwartz, and John Lowe.

Co-captains Dave Simpson and Frank Carelli will lead Coach Bob McIntyre's great Track Team to what looks like another winning season. Coach McIntyre thinks that this will be the best in recent years. A great number of returning letter men head the star-studded team. There are: sprinters Frank Carelli and Ed Joiner; distance men: Ed Ratyna, and Bill Davis; shot putter: Dave Simpson. Left to Right: Back Row, David Cronin, Edward Bolia, John Lowe, Edgar Joiner, Richard Workman, Charles Bergeron, John Ozoonian, Joseph Hastings. For the first time in many years gymnastics returned with a huge success to Andover High as a varsity sport. The success of this year's team is credited mainly to two people, Captain Jack Fitzgerald and first year coach Dick Thornton, but the rest of the team also contributed to all our victories. Bob Colpitts and Jack Fitzgerald are the outstanding senior members.

Glenn Williams and his back-court running mate, Co-captain John Giovino, followed Bennett with 297, and Johnny came through with 268.

Our boys took part in the Bay State tournament following the regular season and advanced to the finals in Class B before losing out to Lexington 75-50. Both Bennett and Williams turned in outstanding performances and were rewarded by being named to the Class B All-Tournament team.

Next season Andover will play in the Northeastern Conference. A black and white illustration featuring a classical building with a portico supported by columns, set against a dark background with stylized clouds. A large, detailed bow is positioned in the foreground, partially obscuring the building. The bow is tied with a ribbon that forms a loop. The entire illustration is framed by a thin white border.
